Indian Institute of Public Administration

15 1959

The Indian Institute of Public Administration was established in March 1954 under the presidency of Shri Jawaharlal Nehru, Prime Minister of India.

The principal objects of the Institute are : to provide for the study of public administration and allied subjects by organising study and training courses, conferences and discussion groups; to undertake research in matters relating to public administration and the machinery of government; to publish periodicals, research papers and books on Indian administration; and to serve as a forum for exchange of ideas and experiences and a clearing house of information on public administration in general.

The Institute has been recognised as the National Section for India of the International Institute of Administrative Sciences.

Regional branches of the Institute have been established in Bombay and Mysore; more regional branches are in the process of formation in Bihar, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and West Bengal. Local branches of the Institute are in existence at Jaipur, Lucknow, Patna, Poona and Trivandrum.

The Institute's membership is open to all persons above 25 years, who are actively interested in or concerned with the study or practice of public administration. The minimum annual subscription for individual membership is Rs. 25. Bona fide post-graduate students below the age of 25 can become 'Associate Members' by paying a membership fee of Rs. 12 per year, but they are not entitled to participate in the management of Institute's affairs.

Any registered business establishment, joint stock company, educational institution, government authority or approved association of public servants can be admitted as Corporate Member on such conditions as may be specified in each case by the Executive Council of the Institute.

The services offered by the Institute to its members include free supply of the Institute's journal and selected research publications, a reference and lending library, information and advice on administrative problems, and participation in the Institute's activities.
